

May 18, 2023 minutes – 5:00 rec meeting

Present – Zack, Elizabeth, Joe, Olivia, Tyler, Tanya

Absent – Erin, Gary, Ward

- School will be taking the Ski Club back. This is a win for all of us – they will have oversight and can operate it as they see fit.
- Tammy is no longer affiliated with the village. Leah Bowens will be running the summer arts and crafts program two days per week. We have budgeted $3500 for the summer, but it will mostly be twice a week for 8 weeks, with some additional dates on special events. The extra money can go for more arts and crafts and something like yoga. Zack spoke with Sonya about possible yoga on the green. Tanya mentioned archery as sometime that we might add.
- Swimming – we will want to get as many kids as possible so no need to just do one day of signups. Zack will announce registration next week.
- Camp registrations are going up slowly and Zack is getting the information shared. Registrations should be up next week.
- Zack is meeting with the basketball club next week.
- Refund request for Michelle Combs for softball camp – unanimously approved
- Rec building is all set and looks great inside. They are in the middle of ordering chairs and look to use the space when there is rain and they need have arts and crafts inside.
- There is going to be a basketball clinic this weekend for girls.
- Softball is going well, umpire issues persist. We did find a few coaches for the softball team – the Leaches. They are playing tonight in McGraw.
- There is a club of 35+ guys who want to play lacrosse – Rusty Cage Lacrosse. They will do non competitive pickup games. The village would have a problem with insurance – we can only cover youth, not adults. Zack will look into what the insurance costs would be.
- Discussed a popup pickleball net – what would it cost and would there be insurance costs.
- Zack said everyone should go to Calale and check out the back stop. He and Jake spent lots of time finishing it up and it looks great.
- Football plants – Zack will need to start over due to the time elapsed since the funds were approved. There are old pants if things are not done in time.
- Concerts are all booked for the summer. Chasing Neon will be coming in June for the fire department and then again later for the summer concert series.
- Zack will be booking the entertainment for Magic on Main in August.

Next meeting will be on June 15, and then off for July and August.
